IBVM

INSTITUTE OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

The Institute of the Blessed Virgin Mary (also known as Loreto Sisters) is a congregation of women religious sisters founded by Englishwoman Mary Ward in the early 17th century. She believed, at a time when it was not a widely held belief in Church or society, that women could “do much” in the service of God. She was a pioneer of the apostolic religious life for women and her order now exists on every continent.

CJ

CONGREGATIO JESU

Congregatio Jesu or Congregation of Jesus is an international congregation of just under 2,000 sisters in 24 countries spread over four continents. Like the Loreto Sisters, they were founded by Mary Ward in 1609 as an institute of, unenclosed, apostolic religious women. The CJ headquarters are in Rome.

MARY WARD'S INSTITUTE

In recent years the desire for the two remaining branches of Mary Ward's Institute to unite has intensified. One of the expressions of this movement toward union is the establishment of various joint IBVM/CJ offices.

THE BAR CONVENT

The Bar Convent is England's oldest living convent, founded in 1686 by sisters of the Congregatio Jesu. Our sisters have lived on this site in the city of York for over three centuries. The Bar Convent is one of the earliest educational establishments for young women in England and has played an important role in the history of York.
