Vision, Mission and Values

Loreto College Ballarat has its foundation in the gospel of Jesus Christ and is proud to be part of and contribute to the larger Catholic community. Loreto College builds on a strong and proud tradition of the education of girls, one which strives to offer 'a Catholic education which liberates, empowers and motivates students to use their individual gifts with confidence, creativity and generosity in loving and responsible service.' (Loreto Schools of Australia Mission Statement)

My Loreto. . .

Our History

Mother Gonzaga Barry's arrival in Ballarat in July 1875 coincided with a period of immense growth and change in Ballarat. From the first day in Ballarat, Mother Gonzaga's vision and futures perspective shone through in her expansion of Loreto education across Australia. Where there was a need, Mother Gonzaga addressed this, which saw her introduce kindergarten, primary secondary and tertiary education in Ballarat and across Australia.

In 2019 we find ourselves in a similar exciting period of growth which now coincides with an evolving new career landscape for the careers of our current and future students.

There is no subject of greater, perhaps of as great, importance to a nation as that of its women's education

Our Present

Our Future

With Mother Gonzaga as a role model for expansion and innovative change, Loreto College is now poised to step courageously forward and, over the next five to fifty years, meet the flourishing need for a Catholic education in the Loreto tradition.

The Board will lead an investigation into the contemporary re-introduction of Mother Gonzaga's founding establishment of integrated pre-school, primary, and boarding education, with an expanded secondary school option.

My Loreto. . . Our Future

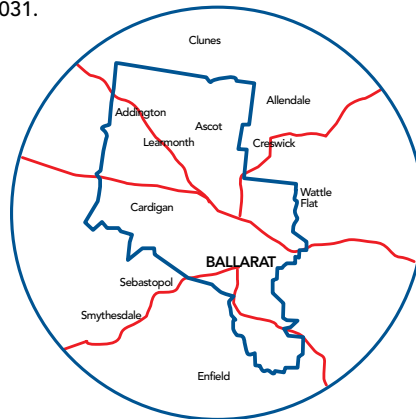

Victoria will have 10 million people by 2050, Melbourne will be Australia's largest city and its population will be double by 2031. Ballarat's own population is projected to grow by more than 21 per cent and 22,000 people in the next ten years.

Loreto College Ballarat has always been attuned to the impact of social and economic change on our students.

'that women in time will come to do great things.'

We are a Loreto school in the spirit of Mary Ward which believes strongly 'that women in time will come to do great things.'

Loreto College says that time is now.

My Loreto is committed to equipping young women
to do great things.
